DESCRIPTION

You enter this charming property directly into the dining room/lounge, which features an ornate fireplace and opens onto a delightful rear terrace. From here, you step into the kitchen, which also provides access to the rear garden. One of the bedrooms, complete with a built-in wardrobe, is conveniently accessed from the dining room/lounge. To the rear of the kitchen, there is a WC, a bathroom with a sink, bath, and shower, and two further bedrooms.

The property continues into a practical utility area housing the oil boiler and oil tank. Beyond this, there are two additional bedrooms, a second lounge, and a shower room. This section of the house could easily be converted into a separate living space or gîte by adding a kitchenette in the corner of the lounge. It also benefits from its own front door, providing independent access.

Opposite the main house is a substantial barn, divided into a storage room, potential summer kitchen, garage, and a very large workshop. Behind the property lies a generous field, complete with mature fruit trees and a vegetable patch.

The property is located in Saint-Aquilin, a peaceful commune in the heart of the picturesque Périgord region of Dordogne, Nouvelle-Aquitaine. Situated around 20 km west of Périgueux, it offers a serene rural lifestyle amidst rolling hills and lush forests.

Saint-Aquilin is rich in history and charm, featuring landmarks such as the 15th-century Saint-Eutrope Church, the prehistoric Dolmen de Peyre-Brune, and the impressive Château de Belet.
