NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Is it your dream to own an Enchanting Renovated Stone Property with Panoramic Views in the stunning Perigord Noir?

Escape to the heart of the Dordogne with this beautiful light-filled stone property. Built in 1800 and fully renovated with taste and style, it blends timeless French charm with modern comfort.

Nestled on the edge of a peaceful hamlet yet just minutes from a lively town with all amenities, it offers both tranquility and convenience. Surrounded by rolling countryside, the property is only 30 minutes from Sarlat-la-Canéda and enjoys spectacular panoramic views.

A sweeping driveway leads to the house.

Ground floor:

The spacious, light-filled entrance hall (16 m²) opens onto a large living/dining room (36 m²) with open-plan kitchen (18 m²) overlooking the landscaped garden.

A second cosy living room with wood-burning stove (20 m²) adds charm, while the laundry/utility room (12 m²) has direct garden access.

Two generous bedrooms (21 m² each), both with ensuite bathrooms, and a third large bathroom (18 m²) complete this level.

First floor:

A white-painted wooden staircase leads to two further bedrooms (17 m² and 11 m²).

The entire house is renovated with great taste and style to a very high standard.

Exterior:

The flat 4,301 m² plot includes two barns.

The first, a substantial stone barn (133 m² ground floor, 120 m² first floor), offers excellent conversion potential.

The second (104 m²), once used for drying tobacco, could also be transformed into accommodation, a
