DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the heart of a picturesque former Cognac estate, this property stands out with its delightful pigeonier tower and welcoming atmosphere. This unique property combines traditional charm with modern comfort, making it both practical and inviting.

The ground floor features a spacious open-plan living and dining area with a fully equipped kitchen, along with a cosy double bedroom and a separate shower/WC.

Upstairs, the tower houses the master suite, complete with en-suite bathroom offering both bath and shower, and enjoying beautiful views over the village centre and rolling Charente-Dordogne countryside.

The living space opens directly onto a covered terrace with table, chairs and BBQ, ideal for long summer evenings. The enclosed garden provides a safe outdoor space, while the property itself is located just opposite the shared pool of the small hameau cluster.

With excellent finishes, no work required, and a privileged location, The Figuier is the perfect lock-up-and-leave holiday home with attractive rental potential.

Property subject to co-ownership (5 lots). Annual charges: €826.
