DESCRIPTION

This spacious property provides a great opportunity to renovate 275m² into one or several independent apartments situated in the centre of a vibrant village less than an hour from Bordeaux.

At the moment a family home with five bedrooms and two large living rooms the property could be used for short term rentals as it provides five bedrooms with four bathrooms, or it could be split into independent apartments for long term rentals.

The front door leads into a large entrance hall which in turn, on one side leads to a large fitted kitchen, dining room with central island. On the other side is a large sitting room (heated by a heat pump) with access to a small garden and another smaller room and a shower room. From the kitchen a second entrance hall (the side door leading into another small outside area) leads to a huge second living area with a cathedral ceiling and half timbering. Two bedrooms are also to be found on the ground floor. Upstairs there are three more bedrooms with bathrooms and a central landing area.

The house is double glazed.

Attached to the house is a large barn which could also be renovated.

LOCAL TAXES

Taxe foncière: 2400 EUR
