DESCRIPTION

The Périgord (Dordogne – 24)

The Périgord, in the heart of the Dordogne, is a region of outstanding beauty and cultural richness. Famous for its rolling landscapes, oak and chestnut forests, charming villages and world-renowned gastronomy, it attracts both visitors and new residents in search of an exceptional quality of life.

The Green Périgord, in the northern part of the department, is especially appealing with its unspoilt countryside, lush meadows, rivers and lakes ideal for swimming and outdoor activities. Life here follows a gentle rhythm, with clean air and distinct seasons – the perfect setting for a permanent residence or a holiday home.

Beyond its natural beauty, the Périgord is steeped in history, boasting castles, medieval bastide towns and Romanesque churches. Its convenient location near Limoges, Angoulême and Périgueux ensures easy access while preserving the peace and quiet of the countryside.

To invest or live in northern Périgord means choosing an authentic, welcoming region full of charm – where the French art de vivre is at its very best.
