DESCRIPTION

Situated on 3 hectares of land, a driveway leads to a collection of stone buildings arranged around a central courtyard. On the left, an open garage is followed by an arched entrance that opens into the courtyard. To the right of the arch is a large barn with an adjoining préau (covered area) used for storing logs for the wood burners.

Inside the courtyard, a stone workshop/store is on the left, and directly opposite is an open-fronted barn that has been converted into an inviting outdoor entertaining area with a bar and seating. The main house sits at the heart of the property, connecting all of these features.

The gardens include various seating areas, barbecue spaces, and fire pits, as well as a gravel terrace and a plunge pool.

Elsewhere on the grounds, there are two large hangars currently used for storage and workshops. These are discreetly tucked away, not visible from the main house or the road. Additionally, there are four usable kennel or poultry houses, plus another block requiring renovation. The property also includes a large polytunnel and a 1,500 m² pond. The land comprises gardens, arable fields, and woodland.

The property has previously operated as a B&B and has hosted short-term holiday stays. Several electrical hook-up points are available on-site for motorhomes, making it ideal for someone with business ambitions.
