IN BRIEF

Looking for a French coastal property for sale in Normandy? This elegant 1930s detached townhouse with 3/4 bedrooms is full of charm and character, ideally located in the picturesque fishing village of Port-Bail-sur-Mer, just 2 km from sandy beaches, 40 km from Cherbourg, and 70 km from Granville. Perfect as a holiday home in France, a family residence, or a second home by the sea. Stephanie Nash and Leggett are delighted to present this 116 m² traditional French house, built in the bourgeois-style. It retains many period features, including oak parquet floors and period decorative tiles, while offering modern comfort.

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Ground Floor

A welcoming entrance hall with built-in storage leads to a cosy living room with a Godin wood burner, opening onto a bright veranda overlooking the garden. The spacious, light-filled kitchen also opens onto the veranda, creating an easy flow through the living areas. A separate dining room and a WC with washbasin complete this floor.

First Floor

Upstairs, there are three generously sized bedrooms all with original oak floors. One includes a large built-in closet, and two are interconnecting—ideal for use as a master suite with dressing room, guest bedroom, or home office. A shower room with WC is also located on this level.

Second Floor

The converted attic offers a large, versatile space with dual-aspect windows, perfect as a child's or teenager's bedroom, hobby room or study.

Additional Features

- Connected to mains drainage
- Heat pump and double glazing
- Excellent condition – no renovation work required
- Private garage (approx. 25 m²)
- Utility room/workshop (approx. 25 m²)
- Enclosed, well-maintained garden
- Private parking for three cars

This sought-after area of Normandy real estate is famous for its beautiful beaches, seafood, and relaxed lifestyle. Port-Bail-sur-Mer offers a traditional French atmosphere with easy access to Cherbourg, ferry ports, and international travel links—making it a great choice for UK, European and international buyers looking for a second home in France by the sea.

French charm at its very best—move-in ready, full of character and perfectly located near the coast.
