DESCRIPTION

Nestled on the edge of the picturesque village of Cherval, this delightful 3-bedroom house offers a rare opportunity to own a slice of authentic French countryside living. Brimming with rustic character and bathed in natural light, the property has served as a cherished holiday retreat for many years. Its relaxed, lived-in charm makes it immediately welcoming, while its untapped potential invites you to imagine the home it could become.

Inside, you'll find a traditional open-plan living and dining area with a cosy wood-burning stove — the heart of the home — alongside a modern kitchen ready for your ideas. The three bedrooms (2 ground floor and 1 upstairs) provide plenty of space for family or guests. There is also a separate bathroom as well as an en-suite shower room and an upstairs bathroom.

Outside, a private swimming pool and sun-drenched terrace make summer days unforgettable. The house's elevated position offers sweeping views over rolling fields and wooded hillsides — a quintessential Dordogne backdrop that never fails to impress.

The adjoining garage, currently partially used for utilities, provides ample space for storing lawn mowers and makes an excellent light workshop. With the appropriate planning permission, it could be converted into an additional room, offering flexible living space to suit your needs

With no central heating and interiors that would benefit from updating, the property is ideal for those looking to create their own dream escape in France. Its location — a short stroll to the friendly shops, café,...
