NOTES

DESCRIPTION

We take the small road lined with fields and crops from the village of Vénès, then the access road, which is a dead end! At the very end, we discover this property, a charming stone farmhouse nestled in the heart of lush greenery and flower beds. An imposing weeping willow completes this picture-postcard setting!

We push open the gate and walk down the flower-lined path to discover two beautiful terraces, one of which is at the rear and leads to the swimming pool and pool house.

There are several entrances, but we choose the one that leads to the 31m² kitchen, which combines old-world charm with all modern comforts – we love it! A natural harmony reigns here, with soft lighting and white-painted woodwork and exposed beams. Continuing on, we discover a beautiful 66m² living room. The former sheepfold has been converted into a dining and lounge area, where the original architectural features have been enhanced by careful renovation. The old fireplace now houses an efficient wood-burning stove, providing atmosphere and cosy warmth. A spiral staircase is one of two ways to reach the upper floor.

A laundry room, pantry and WC with colourful mosaic tiles and tiles complete this ground floor.

Back in the kitchen, we take the staircase leading to the upper floor and the sleeping area, which consists of five bedrooms: a 20 m² master bedroom, two bedrooms with mezzanines, and two other bedrooms. A beautiful 15 m² landing could easily accommodate an office,...
