DESCRIPTION

Nestled in a picturesque wine village just north of Béziers, this beautifully built three-bedroom home is the perfect base for discovering the delights of the Languedoc. With sweeping views across vineyards and valleys to the Black Mountains, it captures the essence of French village life while offering every modern comfort.

The property has been thoughtfully designed with an emphasis on light, space, and easy living. Its main terrace, set just off the living room, provides a magnificent outdoor dining area—ideal for lingering summer meals with family and friends while enjoying sunsets over the mountains. A charming rear terrace offers a more intimate setting for morning coffee or a quiet aperitif.

Inside, the ground floor features an open-plan layout where a modern kitchen flows seamlessly into the spacious living and dining area. Large doors connect this convivial space directly to the terrace, creating a perfect indoor–outdoor lifestyle. Also on this level is a welcoming bedroom, offering convenience for guests or family.

Upstairs, two additional bedrooms are bright and airy, sharing a well-appointed bathroom and separate toilet. A mezzanine, overlooking the living space below, adds architectural interest and serves as an adaptable area for reading, working, or simply relaxing.

This home is more than a residence—it's an effortless lifestyle choice. Designed to be both comfortable and low-maintenance, it makes an excellent “lock-up-and-leave” property for those seeking a holiday retreat. Yet it is equally practical as a permanent residence for anyone wishing to immerse themselves in the charms of the South...
