IN BRIEF

Key Features: Sought-after residential area, close to Nazareth School, absolute peace and quiet, no renovations required, reversible air conditioning, and quality finishes (hardwood floors, marble).

A meticulous restoration that preserves the atmosphere of the house.

On a peaceful street in Parc Impérial, away from the hustle and bustle of the city, this fully renovated 1930s house combines original character and contemporary comfort over 190m² on four levels.

The highlight of this residence: its 100m² terrace designed as a true outdoor space. A semi-inground swimming pool, dining area under the olive tree, pétanque court, and unobstructed views of Saint-Paul Church create an ideal setting for long Mediterranean evenings.

DESCRIPTION

The white marble staircase elegantly structures the spaces: from the bright living room with warm tones (terracotta wall, mustard touches) that opens onto a balcony, to the modern kitchen with graphic tiles, to the upper floors housing the master suite, bedrooms, and office spaces.

The mezzanine offers additional spaces: a gym with sauna, and a separate studio perfect for an office or guests. On the top floor, a games room with a billiards table completes this well-designed family layout.
