DESCRIPTION

On the ground floor, you enter the dining/lounge area (19.9m²) , which also houses the staircase leading upstairs. From here, you'll find a practical galley kitchen (8.3m²)with fitted units , a ground floor bathroom with WC (4.5m²), and a cosy lounge (17.3m²) featuring a log burner – perfect for cooler evenings.

Upstairs are two good-sized bedrooms (15.5m² & 12.6m²) , making this an ideal home or holiday retreat.

Outside, there is a useful shed/cave with potential to extend the kitchen. The property has a pretty outside area where you can sit and have a glass or two whilst taking in all that this award winning town has to offer and parking to the side. Approx 20 metres from the property, an elevated detached garden laid to lawn provides outdoor space with a lovely view of the château.

Set down a tiny lane where you can walk through the alleys past the old washing troughs and pretty gardens kept by locals. From the back of the cottage you see the chateau which is a major tourist attraction. 2 minute walk to one of several restaurants and market day is where you mingle with locals.

Double glazed, mains drains, space to park a car.

1 hour 40 minutes to the nearest ferry port.
This property is ideal as a permanent home, a holiday retreat, or a rental investment in one of the region's most sought-after towns.
