IN BRIEF

INCOME POTENTIAL This fabulous detached villa is situated in a quiet cul de sac near to the River Aude and a 15 minute walk into the centre of Quillan with its many amenities. Offering panoramic views of the Upper Aude Valley, the property is currently operated as a successful rental accommodation by the current owner. The lively market town of Quillan has experienced something of a Renaissance in the past decade as it transformed itself from a busy working town into a tourist destination and acts as a hub for the nearby villages and hamlets.

It comes alive during the summer season with its many fairs, concerts and festivals but also offers a wealth of activities throughout the year from hiking, swimming, fishing, rafting through to wine tours, medieval castles and skiing. Situated between the international airports of Carcassonne...
