DESCRIPTION

Built in 1648, this unique townhouse is one of the most historic riverside buildings in the centre of Salies-de-Béarn.

The townhouse is currently used as a cosy holiday home, but would be ideal as a permanent home for a couple, a small family or for first-time-buyers. In addition, the property is completely ready to move into because it is being sold EQUIPPED AND FURNISHED!

The property could also be used as a gîte for holiday rentals or even rented out on a long-term basis. There are also many tourists visiting this beautiful area, who hope to book delightful self-catering accommodation for short breaks, including people visiting Salies-de-Béarn's famous thermal baths for spa breaks.

The townhouse is located in the historic riverside part of Salies-de-Béarn. From the street, a shared entrance door opens into a small hall, from where a few steps lead up to the property's front door.

The front door opens into a light and airy entrance hall with built-in cupboards and a wooden staircase up to the top floor of the house. The entrance hall could be used as a small office area, a nursery, a playroom, a sleeping area for guests...

From the hall, a door opens into a lovely bedroom (11m²), which has views of the river. On the other side of the hall, there is a shower room with a WC (3.7m²).

From the entrance hall, the staircase leads up to a lovely open-plan, loft-style sitting room with a fully equipped galley kitchen, an open...
