IN BRIEF

Fantastic and rare opportunity to purchase an historical townhouse with services and shops at proximity and only 5KM from the coast and beaches. A rare chance to purchase an historic building in Muzillac - this stone habitation was once part of a larger property owned by the family Le Valois de Sereac and divided after the french revolution.

Whilst keeping much of the character and charm, the property has been largely updated from 2010 and offers accommodation on 3 levels.

Views to the coast and ocean can be seen from the top floor salon.

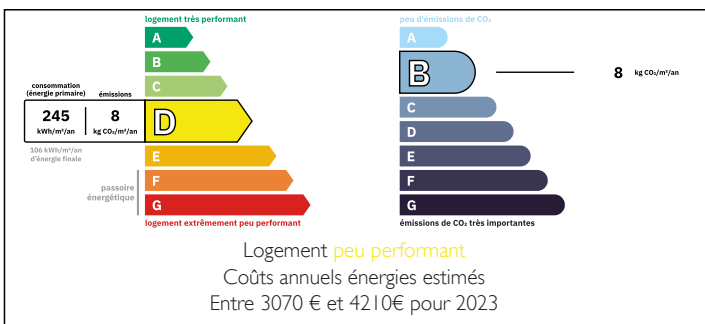

Short walking distance to the local market and shops.

The exterior doors, windows and beautiful spiral staircase are custom made in oak, the interior doors are made of chestnut.

Double glazing. Beamed ceilings. Apparent stone walls. Mains drainage.
