NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This traditional Longère-style stone house offers generous living space with three inviting reception rooms, three bedrooms, and two bathrooms. The home combines authentic period features—such as exposed stone walls, original oak beams, and grand fireplaces fitted with efficient wood-burning stoves—with modern comforts including oil-fired central heating, double glazing in most rooms, and a certified sanitation system.

The property is located in a picturesque village which enjoys a peaceful setting with very little through traffic—only local residents use the small surrounding lanes—offering a rare sense of calm and seclusion. Despite its rural feel, the property is conveniently located less than 4km from pretty town of Aunac-sur-Charente, which offers a doctor's surgery, pharmacy, grocery shop, Bakery, butchers, post office and a bar-restaurant. 7 km from the town of Mansle with restaurants, bar, supermarket Doctors and Vets and approx. 15km from the larger market town of Ruffec with all amenities including school, college etc...

A rare opportunity to own a character-filled home in a serene riverside setting, yet within easy reach of local amenities.
