DESCRIPTION

The main house (181m²) boasts 5 bedrooms, 2 reception rooms and a stylish kitchen leading to a south-facing terrace, and access to the garden.

The second house (61m² excluding ground floor garage) offers endless possibilities. Currently a 2 bedroom dwelling, the attic is ripe for conversion.

Both properties enjoy wonderful outdoor spaces, including a large south-facing garden, perfect for relaxing or entertaining in the sunshine. There are several useful outbuildings, a private well, and plenty of ground-floor seating areas to enjoy the views and peaceful surroundings. A first-floor terrace offers additional outdoor space — ideal for morning coffee, evening drinks, or simply taking in the scenery.

Conveniently located, the house is within easy walking distance of shops, schools, a cinema, and public transport, offering all the benefits of village life without sacrificing accessibility or convenience.

This is a rare opportunity to own a versatile property in a sought-after location — ready to enjoy today, with plenty of scope to develop and expand for the future.
