NOTES

DESCRIPTION

In a much sought-after residential area above the charming village of Aragon, this stunning south-facing property enjoys magnificent, far-reaching views towards Mount Canigou and the Pyrenees. Peaceful and private, yet just a short drive from amenities, it offers the perfect combination of comfort, space and natural beauty.

A long private driveway leads down from the road to the house, with convenient parking beside the entrance. Designed to take full advantage of its exceptional setting, all the main rooms open onto the terrace, creating a wonderful flow between indoors and outdoors.

The entrance hall, with cloakroom, opens into a vast living and dining room of 74m², filled with natural light from windows on both sides and featuring a welcoming open fireplace. The fitted kitchen (10m²) is open to this area but also has direct access to the terrace. A separate utility room (7m²) provides excellent storage and space for appliances.

The impressive master suite (43m²) comprises a spacious bedroom with fitted wardrobes and French windows to the terrace, and a large bathroom with corner bath, walk-in shower, double basins and WC. Two further bedrooms (each 19m²) share a modern shower room with double basins, walk-in shower and WC.

Outside, the extensive terrace leads to the 10m x 5m swimming pool with sunbathing areas and shaded spots for outdoor dining. The summer kitchen and bar area are perfect for entertaining, while the adjoining pool house and storage area take care of the practicalities. Tasteful lighting creates a lovely evening atmosphere.
