DESCRIPTION

Charming Normandy Farmhouse with Chapel, Land and Gîte Potential

Peaceful countryside setting near Saint-Hilaire-du-Harcouët

Tucked away at the very end of a quiet country lane, this charming Normandy rural property offers privacy, tranquillity and open countryside views, with no through traffic and nature surrounding the home. Despite its peaceful setting, the property remains conveniently located with local shops and amenities just a six-minute drive away, making it equally suited to full-time living, a second home in France or a lifestyle change project.

The main farmhouse is currently arranged across two independent levels, providing a flexible living configuration that can easily adapt to a variety of needs. Each level currently benefits from its own bedroom, bathroom, kitchen and living space, allowing the property to function comfortably as multi-generational accommodation, a main residence with private guest quarters, or a home capable of welcoming visiting family and friends.

Under normal circumstances the property would present as a traditional three-bedroom family home. The current layout has been adapted purely to suit the vendors' personal needs and could easily be returned to a more conventional arrangement if desired.
