IN BRIEF

This beautiful equestrian property, currently used for breeding and idyllically situated at the end of a no through road, is not to be missed! The land of nearly 12 hectares of pasture offers numerous paddocks, as well as a round pen, all situated around the main house and with stunning views across the valley. As well as a huge hangar housing the horse walker, 7 loose boxes and tack and feed rooms, there are several other outbuildings, which offer copious storage, of which one has the potential to be converted into a further gite. The recently renovated main house offers spacious accommodation, whilst a door from the kitchen leads directly to an annexe offering a kitchen, shower room, bedroom and bathroom. This area can be closed off from the main house house, thereby offering independent, ground floor...
