DESCRIPTION

Located in the peaceful commune of Eyraud-Crempse-Maurens, just 10 minutes from Bergerac, this elegant Périgourdine-style home offers 218 m² of living space (232 m² usable), combining timeless charm with modern comfort.

Renovated in 2006–2007, the property showcases quality materials and authentic features: exposed beams, natural stone, trusses and a fireplace create a warm, character-filled atmosphere.

The ground floor includes two bedrooms (with the possibility of a third), two shower rooms, a fitted kitchen, dining room, cosy living room, utility/boiler room and separate WC.

Upstairs, two additional bedrooms (third possible), a mezzanine, a third shower room and another WC complete the layout.

A spacious 70 m² garage offers excellent potential for a professional activity, workshop or generous storage.

Set on a 2,539 m² enclosed plot with no overlooking neighbours, the garden offers privacy and is suitable for a swimming pool.

The property is equipped with oil-fired central heating, double glazing, solar panels and a well, contributing to comfort and energy efficiency. The energy rating is C (DPE and GES), which is rare for a home of this vintage.

The location provides easy access to Bergerac's train station, airport, shops, schools and essential services, all within 15 minutes.

Whether you're seeking a family home, a second residence or a base for a business project, this versatile and characterful property adapts to your lifestyle in the heart of the Périgord.
