NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Leggett-Immo offer this Charming Seaside Cottage in Grandcamp-Maisy

Discover the charm of Normandy's coastline in this delightful four-bedroom cottage located in the much-loved seaside town of Grandcamp-Maisy. Just 300 metres from the vibrant fishing port, where the daily catch and weekly market bring the town to life, this property offers the perfect blend of coastal living and authentic French charm.

The cottage features a spacious living and dining room, ideal for family gatherings, and a separate kitchen with plenty of natural light. A modern VIESMANN heating system and recent double glazing ensure comfort all year round. The shower room and separate WC add practicality, while the generous hallway with built-in storage makes excellent use of space.

Outside, a pretty garden provides a peaceful retreat, complemented by off-road parking and a 16 m² cabanon/workshop—perfect for hobbies, storage, or a creative studio.

Grandcamp-Maisy offers all essential amenities, including a supermarket, restaurants, and local services, while the historic towns of Bayeux and Carentan are a short drive away for wider shopping and train links to Paris.

The sandy beach is just a stroll away, and the legendary D-Day landing sites of Omaha and Utah are close by, surrounded by museums and memorials that tell the stories of both medieval and modern Normandy. The area's coastal cycle route invites hours of scenic exploration, and local producers welcome you to sample the region's famous ciders and calvados.

This property combines comfort, convenience, and culture in one of Normandy's most appealing coastal communities — a wonderful...
