DESCRIPTION

Enchanting Country Estate near Bergerac – Restored Manor, Guest Houses & 10.6 Hectares

Set amidst peaceful countryside just 20 minutes from Bergerac Airport, this exceptional Dordogne estate is the perfect blend of history, authenticity, and modern comfort. Dating from around 1800, the property has been sensitively restored over the past 30 years, retaining its original character while offering contemporary convenience.

With a total living space of approximately 810 m² and more than 10.6 hectares of rolling meadows and woodland, the estate presents a rare opportunity — whether as a private residence, a boutique hospitality project, or a wellness retreat.

The Main House

Formerly the original farmhouse, the main residence offers around 150 m² of living space arranged over two floors. It comprises four comfortable bedrooms, one family bathroom, a fitted kitchen opening onto the dining area, an entrance hall, laundry room, technical room, and a large living/dining room with fireplace.

The Converted Barn

With approximately 240 m² of living space over two levels, the converted barn provides generous accommodation with a self-contained suite on the ground floor and three additional bedrooms upstairs. There is one bathroom, three shower rooms, and four separate WCs. The barn also includes a main kitchen and dining area, a professional kitchen, a dining hall, games room, cellar, workshop, two garages, a sauna, and a covered barbecue area. A cobbled courtyard links the spaces and offers a perfect setting for outdoor dining and gatherings.
