DESCRIPTION

A Rare Opportunity in the Heart of Historic Carentan. A Property with a storied history

Set within the former grounds and indeed part of the ancient Carentan castle, this extraordinary townhouse offers a unique blend of architectural heritage, generous living space and exceptional creative potential. Once part of the medieval fortress, its stones are witness to centuries of Norman history. Used as both a billet and prison for German soldiers in WWII the property now forms part a peaceful, private courtyard residence that invites your imagination for refined living.

The house celebrates the estate's heritage through beautifully preserved architectural features. A large living kitchen diner and bathroom complete the ground floor. Two rooms on the first floor and a convertible loft crowns the house, providing an inspiring opportunity for additional accommodation or a dramatic studio.

The house benefits from extensive renovation works including new electrics, plumbing and plastering. The essential structure and utilities are in place, making the homes perfectly poised for a new owner to complete and personalise to their own taste and standard.

With 70 m² and 10 m² of additional courtyard storage, the property offers abundant opportunities. Whether envisioned as a spacious family residence, a gîte, an income-producing rental project, or a distinctive historic retreat, this property stands as a rare offering—where heritage, potential and location combine.

Behind its quiet courtyard walls, the soul of the old castle remains, ready to welcome its next chapter. Private parking.
