IN BRIEF

Discover this charming 130m² village chalet combining authentic Alpine character with high-end features.

It offers four en-suite bedrooms, each with its own shower or bath room and WC for complete comfort and privacy.

On the top floor, the light-filled living area with its wood-burning stove opens onto a south-facing, sunny terrace with a jacuzzi — the perfect spot to soak up the panoramic views of the surrounding peaks and the village bell tower.

The lower level is both practical and well designed, featuring an entrance with a heated ski room, additional storage areas and a garage for one to two cars, a real plus for a village property. With quality materials and immaculate finishes throughout, this chalet delivers a warm, genuine mountain ambiance. A rare opportunity for those who love the Alps in every season.
