DESCRIPTION

On arrival at the property, you enter a long bright and spacious hallway with attractive bright modern floor tiles. Leading off the hallway you enter the large spacious living room again with attractive bright modern floor tiles, a feature wood burner and a view to the front of the property.

From the living room you enter the well fitted, bright and modern kitchen. With well designed cupboard space and storage. There is a integrated electric cooker and halogen hob, integrated fridge as well as a dishwasher. Again, with bright floor tiles. There is a upvc double glazed window and door with lovely views out over the garden.

There is a large and very modern downstairs shower room, with a walk-in shower, WC and vanity washbasin. The walls are fully tiled as is the floor.

Stairs take you up to the first floor where you will find the gorgeous master bedroom with an open plan ensuite bathroom. There is a very attractive wall decoration which gives this room the absolute wow factor. The old fireplace has been kept, should anyone want to open it back up or make it into additional feature. There is a traditional wooden flooring.

The second bedroom can accommodate a double bed however the current owners used it as a dressing room/office, it can be whatever you want it to be, having an attractive wooden flooring and a upvc...
