IN BRIEF

Dating from 1767 this is a light-filled house with exposed stone walls, beams and wood floors. This property mixes this character with modern comforts to create a large (extended) family home. It has excellent business potential, using its current configuration as gites, or for retreats, as an event venue, or as a B&B. It has private parking and barns offering spaces for play and sheltered dining. The well established gardens surround the property, and the pool is in fenced, terraced area.

It is partially double glazed and heating is from a combination of oil-fired central heating, wood burners and electric radiators. It has a septic tank.

The pool is 12 x 6m and has a sand filter.
