DESCRIPTION

Charming Family House near Lake Geneva in Nemier

This is a well-maintained 4-bedroom family house situated in the desirable, historic village of Nemier, providing the key elements of lakeside living alongside practical convenience for those commuting to Switzerland. The property is suitable for use as a main residence or a quality holiday home.

Location and Access for Frontaliers

The house benefits from a highly convenient location, being only a two-minute walk to both the centre of the medieval village and the shore of Lake Geneva (Lac Léman).

For those working across the border, connectivity to Switzerland is straightforward:

Road: Geneva is approximately 30 minutes away by car.

Public Transport: Bus services are available.

Ferry: There is a ferry service to Nyon, Switzerland, from Nemier during summer and year-round from the nearby village of Yvoire. This provides a reliable and scenic route to the Swiss rail network.

Nemier offers a pleasant environment for year-round living with local activities and direct access to the lake.
