IN BRIEF

Located in the charming Cévennes town of Saint-Hippolyte-du-Fort, this modern home built in 2024 offers exceptional contemporary comfort in a calm, natural setting. The property sits on the hillside at the edge of a quiet residential area, surrounded by forest yet only minutes from shops, restaurants, weekly markets, and essential services. Saint-Hippolyte-du-Fort is known for its vibrant village life, artisan producers, outdoor sports, and proximity to the Gorges de l'Hérault and the Cévennes National Park. The Mediterranean coast, including La Grande-Motte and Le Grau-du-Roi, is around one hour away, while the cities of Nîmes and Montpellier can be reached in 45–55 minutes. Both cities offer international airports and TGV connections, making this an ideal permanent residence or a comfortable holiday home with excellent rental potential.
