NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Located just a short walk from the charming artists' village of Les Arques, yet completely surrounded by untouched nature, this elegant 140 m² stone house (built in 1987) is fully move-in ready and impeccably maintained. It offers a rare combination of privacy, authentic charm and modern comfort.

Set on an expansive 31,345 m² plot, the property enjoys total tranquility with no overlooking neighbors. Outdoor spaces include a south-facing swimming pool, sun terraces, shaded seating areas, a covered terrace, garage, box, and covered and uncovered parking spaces.

Outbuilding with full utilities – excellent conversion potential

A major highlight is the outbuilding already connected to water and electricity, offering outstanding potential for conversion: artist's or craftsman's studio, guest cottage or holiday rental, home office or remote-working suite, fitness or wellness room, guest bedroom or independent suite, hobby workshop or high-quality storage

Modern comfort and energy efficiency

The house is equipped with high-end, energy-efficient systems:

heat pump, underfloor heating, solar-powered sunshades

full air conditioning, wood-burning stove for atmosphere and warmth insulation focused on low energy consumption

The spacious interior offers a 46 m² cathedral-ceiling living room, a modern open-plan kitchen, a light-filled veranda, and a large covered terrace overlooking the pool.

The night area includes three 10 m² bedrooms and a 16 m² master suite. Attached is also a charming pigeonier with its own private terrace — an enchanting spot for reading, creating, relaxing or working in complete peace.
