NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Just minutes from Saint-Jean-de-Luz, on the doorstep of the charming village of Ascaïn, this elegant Basque-style family home perfectly embodies the local art of living: authenticity, relaxed lifestyle, nature, and immediate access to the coast.

Set on a flat, fully enclosed 1,202 m² plot, this property offers a rare setting: a sunny garden ideal for outdoor dining, relaxing, or enjoying convivial Basque evenings. Daily life is made easy with shops, cafés, and village services within walking distance.

Built over a garage and cellar, the house spans approximately 135 m² and features three possible entrances, offering flexibility and comfort. The raised ground floor hosts a bright living room opening onto a terrace with pergola, perfect for enjoying the sun, and complemented by a large fireplace for cozy evenings after a day at the beach. The fitted kitchen invites family meals, while a versatile office (or extra bedroom), a shower room with WC, and abundant storage complete the living space.

Upstairs, four charming bedrooms—including two with sinks and one opening onto a balcony—along with a bathroom with WC, provide a comfortable and functional sleeping area. The home exudes warmth and authenticity, true to Basque style.

With a few personal touches, this property becomes an ideal retreat, whether as a primary residence or holiday home, just minutes from the beaches of the Basque Coast, the vibrant city of Biarritz, and the cultural richness of Spain.

A rare property where tradition, lifestyle, and Basque identity come together with elegance.
