DESCRIPTION

Are you looking for a charming property with a swimming pool and mature garden, perfect as a primary residence or holiday home, with excellent potential for expansion without major renovations?

Nestled in a picturesque village in the Périgord Noir, this bright and airy home features 2.9m high ceilings and a peaceful panoramic view over the valley. The lovely landscaped garden, with mature plants, creates a serene natural setting. From its terrace, you can enjoy the surrounding nature and take in the view of the pool below.

Currently, the house comprises two bedrooms (14m² and 9m²) and a spacious 47m² reception area with a 10m² open-plan kitchen, complemented by a 4.5m² bathroom with WC on this level. It offers potential for expansion: the garden level, which also includes a 33m² garage, a 17m² workshop and WC, features two pre-fitted rooms (16m² and 11m²), that can be used, if needed, to create additional living spaces.

While close to local shops, restaurant, bread outlet and amenities, the property remains tucked away from noise and disturbances.

With its warm atmosphere and very reasonable price, this home is ideal for those seeking authenticity, comfort, and tranquility in the heart of the Périgord Noir.
