IN BRIEF

This character-filled French property presents an exciting opportunity for buyers looking for charm, income, and the freedom to modernise to their own taste. The house offers five bedrooms, generous living areas, and authentic features such as original fireplaces and floors.

A key advantage of this property is its on-site pizza takeaway, which will be sold with a tenant in place. The established business provides a reliable monthly income, offering immediate financial benefit with no need for the buyer to manage the operation directly.
