IN BRIEF

Hidden at the end of a tree-lined private driveway, the property stretches across two hectares of landscaped parkland with walled gardens, a fruit orchard, meadows, and a small woodland.

The main house offers more than 500 m² of living space, including eight reception rooms, six bedrooms, and six bathrooms, combining generous proportions with refined period details. Dating from the 16th to 19th centuries, the estate has been carefully extended and modernised while preserving its original character.

A guest house to renovate, a double garage, and additional outbuildings complete the property.

Located in the charming town of Melle, within walking distance of local amenities and just 30 km from Niort, in the heart of the Pays Mellois, this historic manoir offers a rare blend of elegance,
