IN BRIEF

Situated in a quiet hamlet just 10 minutes from the market town of Ruffec with all of its amenities including its train station with connections to Paris and Bordeaux, this detached stone property offers large living areas, 4 good-sized bedrooms and various outbuildings too.

Originally a barn, the property was converted in the 1990s to create a large family home so whilst the house is habitable straight away, it does require some works to bring it up to modern standards. One of its key features is the large covered terrace overlooking the garden - perfect for outdoor dining - which then wraps round the front of the property too.

Another major selling point is the huge open-plan lounge-diner (measuring just over 70m²) with a double-height centrepiece looking up to the mezzanine landing above. This lovely room offers 4
