NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This well-presented and attractive equestrian property or smallholding is set within 4.5 hectares (approximately 11 acres) of its own land and enjoys far-reaching panoramic views across the valley. The land comprises a combination of paddocks, fields and woodland, offering a practical and well-balanced layout. The property also benefits from a well located on the land.

The setting is secluded and rural without being isolated, making it ideal for those seeking space, privacy and a practical countryside lifestyle.

The traditional farmhouse opens into a spacious entrance hall with a conveniently located ground-floor bathroom. From here there is access to the kitchen/diner, the staircase and the lounge.

The farmhouse kitchen (approximately 35m²) is designed for everyday living and entertaining, with space for a large dining table, a snug area and a generous cooking and preparation zone. French doors lead directly onto a large decked terrace, creating an easy connection between indoor and outdoor living. The terrace offers space for dining and sun loungers and overlooks the heated 9m x 5m swimming pool, which is heated economically using the air source heat pump.

The lounge (34m²) is both comfortable and inviting, with a carpeted floor and a 21kW wood-burning stove providing a warm focal point. French doors open onto the terrace, allowing plenty of natural light and easy access to the outdoor entertaining area.

The ground-floor bathroom (6m²) is located opposite the main entrance, making it easily accessible from outside.

Upstairs, a large landing with high ceilings and exposed beams leads to...
