IN BRIEF

Located in a highly sought-after coastal setting at Baie des Trépassés, this house offers a family-friendly layout with a large living room, veranda, fitted and equipped kitchen, 4 bedrooms, a bathroom, a shower room, 2 WCs, a summer kitchen, a utility room, a garage and a large room on the first floor to be converted. The enclosed plot of around 1,225 m², the south-facing terrace and the immediate proximity to the beach make this an attractive property both as a main home and as a holiday house.

A renovation budget will be required to fit out the large first-floor room, upgrade the individual drainage system (quotation in progress) and refresh the summer kitchen and utility room. The village of Clédén-Cap-Sizun provides essential day-to-day services, including the town hall and the post office, while Audierne, about 10 km away by...
