IN BRIEF

This property is located a short walk from the market square in the pretty town of Boussac. The website for the town is here -<https://www.boussac.fr/>

The house, almost 100 years old, still retains some original features, including an impressive granite fireplace in the living room. It was built at a time when townhouses had high ceilings, wooden staircases and parquet or tiled flooring, much of which has been retained. Although the house needs upgrading, it has the potential to become a lovely home with a rental or additional guest accommodation next door. The two houses are easily separated into independent units.

The property is surrounded by an enclosed and gated south-facing garden with elevated terrace and parking.
