IN BRIEF

Rare opportunity in Montcuq: located in the heart of the historic village of Montcuq, this magnificent 1,807 m² building plot offers a privileged and peaceful living environment.

At the front, the plot opens onto superb unobstructed views of the surrounding countryside, while at the rear, you'll enjoy an iconic view of the Montcuq tower.

Situated at the end of a cul-de-sac, it enjoys a quiet, unspoiled setting, backing onto a protected natural area in the heart of the village, ensuring total tranquility and privacy.

Water, electricity, and mains drainage connections are in the immediate vicinity, facilitating the realization of your building project.

Another major advantage: everything is within walking distance. Shops, the market, restaurants, services, and village activities are all accessible in just a few minutes.

DESCRIPTION

Please note: the land is located within the protected area of a listed historical monument, which means that certain regulations from the French Heritage Buildings authority (Bâtiments de France) apply to construction projects, ensuring a harmonious and enhanced architectural setting.

A unique plot of land, combining a central location, exceptional views, and a preserved environment, ideal for a life project in the heart of one of the most sought-after villages in the Quercy region.
