NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This superb property is set just outside the local town of Craon in the Southern Mayenne region and Loire Valley. It stands in 5ha of woodland, hillsides and meadows, with the river l'Uzère gently running by.

This is the property that has absolutely everything! A 500 year old restored mill with a world of opportunities such as a luxury chambre d'hotes, a self contained gite and a camping site.

The mill still contains the workings and the original water wheel. Within the mill house there is a luxurious salon with wood burning stove, tiled floors, attractive built in cupboards and French windows looking out onto pretty gardens. From the salon wooden stairs lead up to two beautifully individually decorated bedrooms both with en suite and one with a Juliet balcony. From the landing there is a further wooden staircase leading to a spacious attic and the possibility of two further bedrooms.

The main house festooned with wisteria has a fitted kitchen/diner. A large lounge with an open fire, a bedroom and bathroom with shower. An additional room adjacent to the lounge can be used as either a bedroom or an office area. To rear of house there is a large utility area /cave.

Housed with n the outbuildings are two stables and an shower, toilet and washing up area. The grassy meadow is an ideal campsite,surrounded by further paddocks.

The land the other side of the river is accessible by either...
