DESCRIPTION

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed into an open hallway with ample built-in storage. This leads to a mezzanine landing, where you will find the first bedroom, a bright and inviting space with its own private 9 m² terrace, offering lovely views over the village rooftops towards Vinça. This level also features a modern shower room with WC.

The main living level boasts a stylish open-plan layout comprising a living area, dining space, and fully fitted kitchen. Large doors open directly onto the impressive 60 m² main sun terrace, perfect for entertaining and relaxing, complete with a jacuzzi area. The second bedroom is also located on this level and benefits from a dressing room and a small private terrace. On the ground floor, there is a spacious cellar

Tucked away in the peaceful and picturesque village of Joch, just a short drive from Vinça in the Pyrénées-Orientales, this beautifully renovated stone house offers 90 m² of character-rich living space—ideal if you are seeking a laid-back lifestyle in the South of France.

The village of Joch is known for its warm, welcoming community, including a mix of locals and international residents. It offers a small café and local restaurant, convenient daily bread deliveries—adding to its authentic charm. Surrounded by stunning natural landscapes, it's a haven for walkers, cyclists, and nature lovers, while still being less than an hour from the Mediterranean coast, Perpignan airport, and even the Spanish border
