DESCRIPTION

Charming stone house with barn, garden and courtyard - ideal home or holiday retreat

This beautifully presented stone property offers a warm and cosy atmosphere, combining character features with practical living space, set in a peaceful environment.

Accommodation comprises:

On the ground floor, an inviting entrance (7m²) leads to a shower room (3m²) with separate WC (1m²). The heart of the home is the impressive kitchen-diner (20m²), featuring a fireplace and exposed beams, with doors opening onto the enclosed front courtyard - perfect for morning coffee. The lounge (19m²) enjoys views over the garden and opens onto a covered terrace, ideal for al fresco dining.

On the first floor, there is a generous landing (28m²), currently used as a sewing area but with potential to create a second bedroom if required, a main bedroom (12m²), and a bathroom (8m²). From the bathroom, a door leads directly into the upper level of the attached barn (50m²), offering the possibility to create an additional bedroom or workspace, subject to the necessary planning permissions.

Outside, the property benefits from an attached barn (50m²), a stone storage building (5m²), and garden with raised vegetable beds. There is also hardstanding at the end of the garden providing parking for several vehicles. The covered terrace is perfectly positioned for outdoor dining and entertaining.

The house retains many original features including exposed beams and wooden or tiled floors, and is heated by electric radiators.
