DESCRIPTION

The property is entered via a hallway (2 m²), which includes a ground-floor WC (1.5 m²). From here, you are welcomed into the cosy kitchen/diner, thoughtfully divided by a breakfast bar to create a well-appointed kitchen (9 m²) and a warm, sociable dining area (10 m²).

This space leads through to a spacious lounge (25 m²), ideal for family living and entertaining. Beyond the lounge is an additional and very practical section of the property, comprising a bureau/office (7.1 m²) and a large storage area (7.7 m²), perfect for storing preserves, wine, or household supplies. This area gives direct access to the large garage/workshop (24.3 m²).

From the entrance hall, a short flight of steps leads to the family shower room (2.7 m²). A few steps further up brings you to the first floor, where you will find three generous bedrooms ranging from 12.4 m² to 13.1 m², along with a study (6.3 m²) and a spacious landing, all adding to the feeling of light and space.

Outside, a covered terrace provides sheltered indoor-outdoor living and forms a covered walkway leading to a self-contained one-bedroom gîte. This accommodation comprises an open-plan kitchen/lounge/diner (17 m²), a bedroom (8.2 m²), a dressing room (4.4 m²), and a shower room with sink and WC (3.6 m²)—ideal for guests or rental income.

The surrounding 4.9 hectares of land are perfectly suited to the keeping of horses, with sectioned paddocks and shelters already in place, making this an excellent equestrian property.
