DESCRIPTION

Set within a calm and highly prized residential sector, this attractive Provençal villa combines generous volumes, panoramic views and an excellent family layout. The property offers around 150 m² of living accommodation, complemented by an exceptional 327 m² of total usable space, all set within a perfectly flat landscaped plot of 2,025 m² enjoying a south-west orientation and sweeping views over the surrounding village and countryside.

The ground floor opens with an entrance hall leading into a bright living-dining room, ideal for family life and entertaining. A separate fitted kitchen is supported by a practical pantry, while a dedicated office provides a comfortable space for working from home.

On the garden level, two bedrooms with dressing rooms share a bathroom and WC, creating a private and functional sleeping area. The first floor accommodates two further bedrooms, again with dressing rooms, along with a bathroom and WC. The top floor completes the accommodation with an additional bedroom featuring its own dressing room and WC, offering flexible use as a principal suite, guest room or teenager's retreat.

Outside, the flat and beautifully maintained gardens provide multiple spaces for outdoor living. A swimming pool invites summer relaxation, while the boules court adds a classic Provençal touch. Shaded terraces and dining areas extend the living spaces outdoors, and a double carport ensures convenient parking.

Additional features include fireplace, air conditioning, double glazing, flyscreens, alarm system and crawl space storage, ensuring year round comfort and security. Ideally located within easy reach of shops,...
