IN BRIEF

Well presented main house with large, modern eat-in kitchen, utility room and further sitting room. Four bedrooms, shower room and two WCs. Travertine floors throughout the ground floor of the main house. Individually controlled electric radiators and two wood burners ensure a cozy atmosphere. There is also a totally independent gite with two bedrooms, shower room and open-plan sitting room/kitchen and air conditioning. All set in a private enclosed courtyard on the edge of a small hamlet. New septic tank was recently installed and there is double glazing throughout. Large terrace at the back of the house offers uninterrupted views over the surrounding countryside and has a 4m by 8m heated pool with electric cover installed in 2017. An excellent family home with income potential or a great lock up and leave holiday home.

Position

Vinverville (17490) is a charming rural village ideally situated between the market towns of Matha, Rouillac and Aigre, in the heart of the Charentaise countryside.

Enjoying a peaceful setting surrounded by rolling farmland and vineyards, the village offers a tranquil lifestyle while remaining conveniently close to everyday amenities. The bustling town of Matha is just a short drive away and provides supermarkets, schools, medical facilities, cafés and a popular weekly market. Rouillac, well known for its renowned monthly antiques fair and vibrant local commerce, offers further shops and services, while Aigre provides additional amenities including restaurants, boulangeries and essential services.
