DESCRIPTION

This beautiful single-storey home, built in 2006, offers 103 m² of comfortable living space and sits on a generous 1,355 m² enclosed and landscaped plot, surrounded by greenery.

Warm, bright, and welcoming, the house has been thoughtfully designed with quality materials throughout. The open-plan kitchen flows seamlessly into the living area, where large sliding glass doors open onto a lovely terrace — perfect for enjoying sunny days and peaceful evenings. The living room is enhanced by an elegant curved triple-glazed bay window and a wood-burning insert fireplace, adding both charm and comfort.

The night area features three pleasant bedrooms, ideal for family life or welcoming guests. The bathroom is a true haven of relaxation, offering both a walk-in Italian shower and a balneotherapy bathtub.

High-quality finishes include hardwood flooring and handcrafted stone from Barthes, adding character and refinement to the home.

The garden enjoys open views and includes a garden shed, with ample space to envision adding a swimming pool. The property is also equipped with photovoltaic panels, fiber-optic internet, three parking spaces, and a garage.

Ideally located just 25 minutes from Angoulême and 20 minutes from Cognac, this home is perfect for anyone seeking a peaceful setting, generous space, and a modern, move-in-ready property with no work required.
