DESCRIPTION

Ideally situated in the heart of Saint Martin de Belleville, this commercial unit offers a warm and authentic setting for undertaking a professional activity.

The ground floor space of 31m², serves as the main area of focus of the premises. Bright and easy to configure, it allows for an optimal layout of products and/or services. Neither too large nor too small, it promotes friendly interaction with customers whilst also enabling the flow of people.

In the basement, a 30m² storage area equipped with a toilet, completes the property. This space is ideal for stocking goods, setting up a small workshop, or organizing back-office operations.

The premises offer strong potential for a seasonal or year-round business, with the village attracting lots of visitors in addition to the full-time local community.

Nestled in the heart of the Alps, the authentic village of Saint Martin de Belleville charms visitors with its Savoyard character, peaceful streets, and welcoming atmosphere. Directly linked to the 3 Valleys ski area, it attracts both French and international guests each year, drawn to its exceptional setting. The village combines the traditional spirit of mountain hamlets with the vibrancy of a lively resort, shaped by the rhythm of the seasons. An ideal location for developing a commercial activity supported by strong, diverse, and loyal tourism.
