NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Nestled in a peaceful hamlet attached to the commune of Escoutoux, this beautiful period stone and rammed earth house offers 238 m² of comfortable living space. Perfectly maintained and tastefully renovated, it combines the charm of the old with modern comfort — featuring excellent energy performance (Energy Rating B), double glazing and a recent heat pump.

From the moment you arrive, a pleasant terrace welcomes you, extended above by a second space arranged in a “Moroccan lounge” style, ideal for summer evenings.

You enter into a large, bright and welcoming living room with fireplace and dining area. The fully fitted kitchen opens easily to the outside and provides direct access to the summer kitchen on the terrace — perfect for entertaining with ease.

The house comprises 7 rooms including 5 bedrooms and 2 lounges, harmoniously arranged as follows:

On the first floor: one bedroom, a bathroom, WC and a second living room, with two adjoining bedrooms.

On the top floor: two additional bedrooms.

Outside, every corner has been thoughtfully designed to make the most of the sunny days: several relaxation areas, small garden lounge spaces ideal for convivial moments, a wooden-clad above-ground pool and an adjoining jacuzzi... The whole setting creates a holiday atmosphere all year round.

At the rear of the property, a charming small chalet with sofa provides additional space, much appreciated in summer.
