DESCRIPTION

Nestled within a small and tranquil hamlet near the sought-after Provençal village of Seillans, this delightful stone bastide offers authentic character, privacy and timeless charm in a beautiful natural environment.

Set on fully enclosed grounds arranged over several terraces and surrounded by countryside, the property provides a serene retreat while remaining within easy reach of village amenities.

Renovated in 1990, the house combines traditional character with modern comfort, including double glazing, electric heating and a charming wood-burning stove that creates a warm and inviting atmosphere during the cooler months.

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed into a bright living room. A separate kitchen adjoins the living space, both rooms benefiting from direct access to the terrace — ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining.

Upstairs, there are three comfortable bedrooms and two bathrooms, offering well-balanced family accommodation.

On the lower level, a self-contained guest suite provides excellent flexibility. This space includes a bedroom and en-suite shower room, accessed via a staircase or with independent access and doors opening directly onto the garden — perfect for visiting guests, extended family, or potential rental use.

Outside, the fully enclosed grounds are arranged over multiple terraces and surrounded by natural greenery.

There is a well, a stone storage room and an additional garden shed.

This property is ideal as a permanent residence, holiday home or lock-up-and-leave retreat in the
