DESCRIPTION

On the edge of the village of Thédillac, this 1779 residence has been carefully renovated about 20 years ago, preserving its soul and the charm of its historic features: beautiful stone walls, period staircase, original fireplaces and flooring.

The ground floor is arranged around a spacious entrance with beautiful old stone staircase to the first floor (10m²) leading to an authentic, fully equipped stone kitchen with dining area (24m²), a welcoming living room (28m²), and a bedroom / study opening onto the patio (20m²), as well as a utility/boiler room.

Upstairs: a bright second lounge with fireplace (28m²) , two generous bedrooms (26m² + 23m²) — one with an en-suite shower room set in the former dovecote — and a family bathroom (8m²).

On the house side, a charming private garden provides the perfect setting for morning coffee, sometimes accompanied by the scent of fresh bread from the nearby bakery.

Across the quiet lane, a second landscaped garden of over 2500m² features an elegant tower, a swimming pool with summer kitchen and facilities, and breathtaking open views over the rolling hills.

The home combines authenticity with modern comfort, including double glazing, oil-fired central heating, wood-burning stove, carport, and mains drainage.

The property is ideally located to enjoy the charms of the region: about 30 minutes from the medieval villages of Cahors and Saint-Cirq-Lapopie, known for their heritage and local markets. Access is convenient: the main highway (A20) is 15 minutes away, providing quick connections to Toulouse or Brive-la-Gaillarde. Toulouse...
